ARCIL Newsletter

iMAX Field Trip

ARCIL consumers enjoyed an outing to the Bullock Museum to watch the T-Rex documentary, followed by a group lunch.

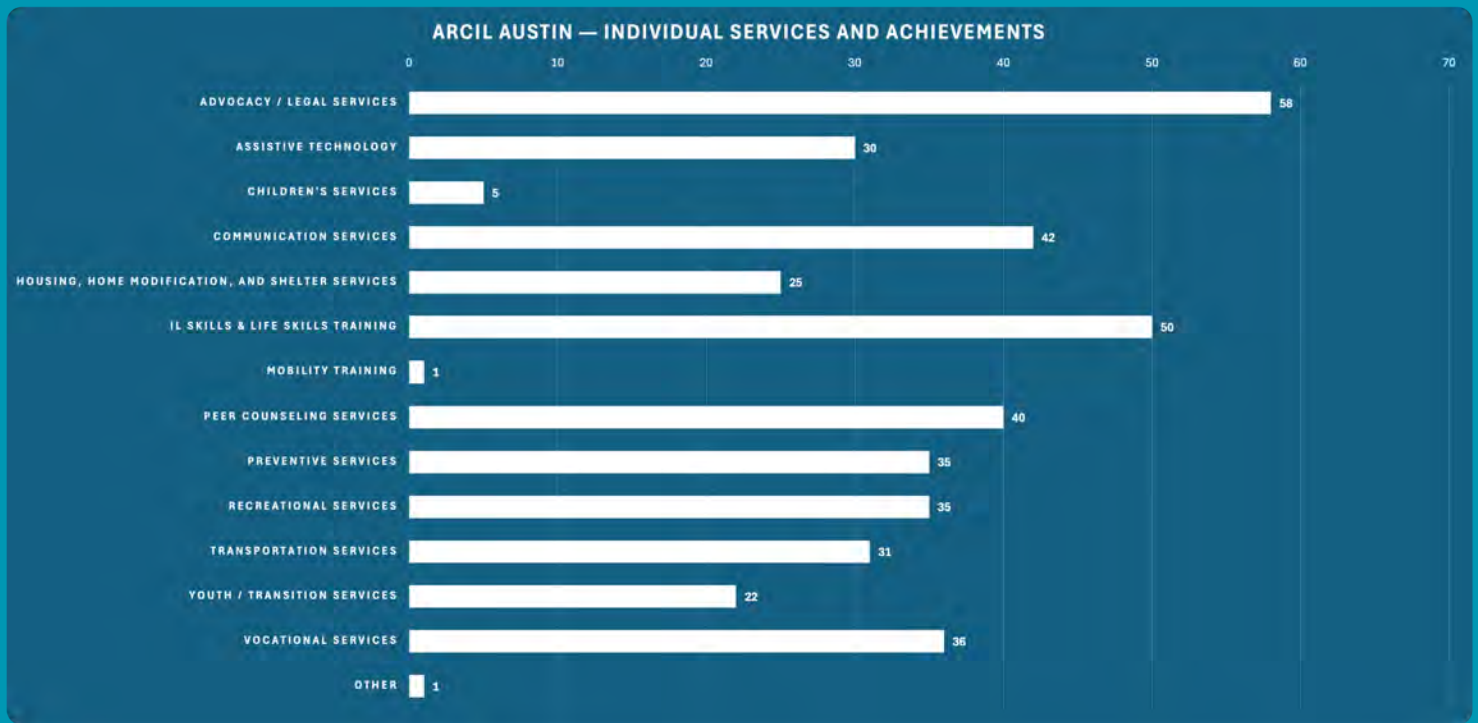

New Classes In October

October brought in several exciting new classes, including resume building with Texas Workforce, Creative Movement with Silva from ArtSpark, and a money management session presented by Frost Bank. We also had a special visit from Divine Canines.

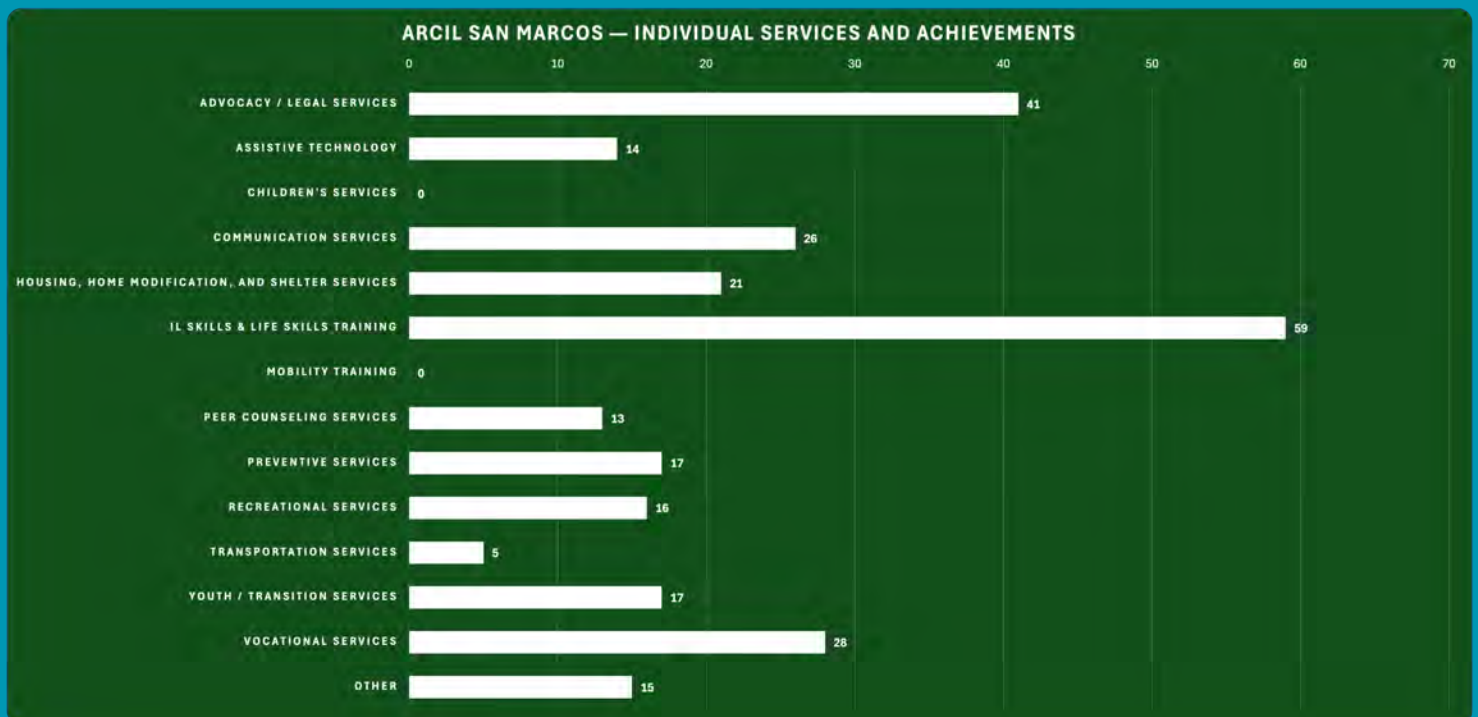

Therapy dogs-Ozzy and ZuZu were a huge hit!

Halloween Party

Consumers and staff had a great time dressing up, making Halloween crafts, and dancing to spooky tunes! We also enjoyed a delicious enchilada casserole and festive treats.

White Cane Celebration

White Cane Safety Day Celebrates the independence of individuals who are blind or visually impaired. The White cane serves as a symbol of confidence, freedom, and empowerment.

A group of ARCIL consumers participated in White Cane Day at the Texas School for the Blind and Visually Impaired, where they had the opportunity to visit various vendors, enjoy a meal, and honor and support the blind and visually impaired community.

November Classes

In November, we will be introducing new classes in Music Appreciation, Architecture in Daily Life, and Science classes.

Silva with Artspark will be continuing her Creative Movement classes and spotlighting dancers with disabilities from around the world.

Central Health will also visit to share information about their healthcare services.
